NATIONAL PRIVACY ACT STANDARD COLLECTION NOTICE

Aurora Southern Highlands Steiner School is bound by the National Privacy Principles. Aurora Southern Highlands Steiner School collects personal information for administration, the provision of services and to comply with government reporting requirements. We will not use information for any other purposes unless specifically defined. Please notify us in writing if you require further privacy protection.

The school collects personal information about pupils and parents or guardians before and during the course of a pupil's enrolment at the School. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the school to provide schooling for your son/daughter.

Some of the information we collect is to satisfy the school's legal obligations, particularly to enable the school to discharge its duty of care.

Certain laws governing or relating to the operation of schools require that certain information be collected. These include Public Health and Child Protection laws.

Health information about pupils is sensitive information within the terms of the National Privacy Principles under the Privacy Act. We may ask you to provide medical reports about pupils from time to time if these are relevant in satisfying our duty of care.

The school from time to time may disclose personal and sensitive information to others for administrative and educational purposes. This includes, but is not limited to, other schools, government departments, medical practitioners, and people providing services to the school, including visiting specialist teachers and volunteers.

If we do not obtain the information referred to above we may not be able to enroll or continue the enrolment of your son/daughter.

Personal information collected from pupils is regularly disclosed to their parents or guardians. On occasions information such as special achievements, pupil activities and other news is published in the school newsletters, magazines and on our website.

Parents may seek access to personal information collected about them and their son/daughter by contacting the school.

From time to time the school may engage in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.

We may include your contact details in a class list and school directory. If you do not agree to this you must advise us now. Phone lists may not be used for purposes other than as a personal contact directory.

If you provide the school with the personal information of others, such as doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the school and why so that they can access that information if they wish and that the school does not usually disclose the information to third parties.

Thank you for your application!
